FINAL COMPOSITION

After the rest time, spread the dough with your finger, then shape it into a ball again and let it rest for another 10 minutes.

Divide the dough into 150-g portions and shape each portion into a sort of rope with length of about 25cm.

Braid them three by three, them let leaven in the proofer room for 40-60 minutes at 28-30°C, with relative humidity of approximately the 80%.

Brush the braided brioche with beaten egg and sprinkle them with pearl sugar.

Bake at 190-200°C for about 20 minutes in a deck oven.

AMBASSADOR'S TIPS

You can replace the whole dose of butter with margarine.
